VOL. XXI. CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 4, 1868. NUMBER 247.

WASHINGTON.

Additional Articles of Impeachment Adopted in the House.

The Senate Announces Its Readiness to Proceed With the Case.

Formal Presentation of the Articles to Take Place To-Day.

No Change of Matters at the War Department.

The Quo Warranto Movement Probably Abandoned.

Movement Inaugurated by the High Tariff Men.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, March 3.

A general impression was manifested in all the proceedings at the Capitol to-day. The Supreme Court adjourned over to-morrow. The appearance of the Managers of the Impeachment was expected at the bar of the Senate, but no communication further action, on the part of the House, were received in its gallleries.

THE FORMAL ARRAIGNMENT of the accused will probably take place to-morrow, when counsel will be entered in his behalf, and the case be put in shape for trial. Chief Justice Chase, it is understood, has made a requisition upon the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate for the necessary number of deputies to attend the Court.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLES.

It soon became known that the managers had one or half after two, and, after 3 months of two hours, had agreed to report two additional articles. The one charges the Cabinet of Andrew Johnson with a conspiracy to prevent the execution of the Tenure of Office act, and the other charges the President with the issuance of the order and letter of the Clerk to duck the articles of impeachment, saying that the Committee on the part of Managers had, with due dispatch, reported the articles to the House, and that the House had, with due dispatch, agreed to the same. Of course, there came with the usual adjournment, to-morrow, and Saturday, but that does not affect the case.

THE SENATE

will be promptly ready with the managers but not to-day. Mr. Bingham, one of the managers, will be to-morrow, to present the articles, and to-morrow the Senate will be ready to proceed with the trial.

SECOND DISPATCH.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, March 3.

The Senate proceeded to the consideration of the report of the Select Committee on the Rules of Business, which were then laid over for further consideration, and on motion made by Mr. Sherman, at 5 o'clock, the Senate went into executive session, several members having been requested to remain, as it was announced that no special business to them, so far as giving any information or a purpose to delay trial, or grounds of that any Republican Senator are so desiring to weaken the impeachment.

THE MANAGERS

will be in the Senate Chamber to-morrow, at 12 o'clock, to present the articles, by reading to the Senate the articles, by reading to the Senate the articles, by reading to the bar of that body.

THIRD DISPATCH.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, March 3.

Mr. YATES, from the Committee on Territories, reported a bill to provide for the election of a permanent form for the Territory of Idaho.

The bill for the relief of settlers on the Ute Reservation was passed.

SOLDIERS' BOUNTIES.

Mr. WILSON introduced a bill to facilitate the payment of soldiers' bounties, under the act of July, 1866, and authorizes the employment of additional clerks for that purpose.

Mr. Sherman, after discussion, it was referred to the Committee on Finance.

BANKS OF IMPROVEMENT.

Mr. HOWARD introduced a bill in order on behalf of the select committee of seven on the subject of the Freedmen's Bureau, to refer the testimony of the Senate to report to the Senate to receive the testimony appointed by the House of Representatives, and to report to the Senate.

NATIONAL BANKS.

On motion of Mr. MORRILL, of Vt., the Senate took up the bill to fund the national debt, and the question was on the substitute reported by Mr. MORRILL, made in opposition to the bill. Mr. MORRILL spoke in opposition to the bill. Mr. SHERMAN replied to the remarks of Mr. MORRILL. He thought the most important thing was to fund the debt at a low rate of interest. The present system was more than extravagant. It appears to him that, with 40% circulating notes, the banks could afford to take 5 per cent. Of course, there would be a reduction of the new articles will be brought before the Senate, but claim that they can be made in less if necessary.

ADJOURNMENT.

We have much talk during the day in relation to the impeachment debates, the various rules for impeachment, and votes to be taken, and the Senate adjourned. It appears to me that no special night to them, so far as giving any information or a purpose to delay trial, or grounds of that any Republican Senator are so desiring to weaken the impeachment
